ABOUT ME

I'm Bhavani, currently pursuing my B.Sc. in Computer Science with Data Analytics at St. Joseph's College for Women in Tirupur. I have developed a strong passion for technology and data analytics, and I am committed to expanding my knowledge in these fields. Throughout my academic journey, I have honed skills in Python programming, effective communication, and data entry, which have strengthened my ability to analyze and solve complex problems.

I pride myself on my teamwork and collaboration skills, always striving to contribute positively to group projects and initiatives. With a positive attitude and a strong work ethic, I approach challenges with enthusiasm and determination. My goal is to leverage my skills and education to contribute meaningfully to the ever-evolving world of computer science and data analytics.
